B. D. RINGO,
F. L. FELIX, Editors and Proprietors.

Subscription Price, $1.50 per Year.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 10.

Fire at Morgantown, Ky., Thursday, destroyed $60,000 worth of property, carrying away a block in the middle of the little town.

The Washington County Leader, of Springfield, is for sale. A splendid newspaper, fine outfit and locality, and offers a good chance to any man to embark in the newspaper business.

The year of 1892 is beginning well in Kentucky for the effective dispatch of criminals. Three men were hanged in the State Friday—one more than was legally hanged during the whole of 1891. Let us hope the good work goes on.

Kentucky is entitled to twenty-six votes in the National Democratic Convention which meets at Chicago in June to nominate a President. There will be twenty-six delegates, two for each Congressional District and four from the State at large.

Mr. BRENT ALTSHELER, one of the best known young newspaper men in the country, has been contracted by the Sunday Star. He will greatly improve under the new management, and is destined to be from now on, one of the most popular Sunday newspaper in the State.

Poor old sinful Hardin County, where they thirst for gain, greed and power, like leeches in her mil, who readily tried to saw out. They do not want to come down into peaceful Ohio, where they can live in quietness and the jail remains for most of the time only a useless ornament.

Some sensible farmer, who had evidently been reading the Herald, sent to the Farmers Home Journal last week a communication which will be reprinted in full. It will be greatly improved under the new management, and is destined to be from now on, one of the most popular Sunday newspapers in the State.

The Herald did not publish its investigation a little further and pays its respects to the bidders who came with a bag of federal office holders and bought a few cattle in Ohio county and voted them at the election of August, 1890. But perhaps the good people of Ohio will be willing to publish this gang of Federal office-holding bootlers and the nefarious party for which they work.

When a public office is to be filled, every citizen has the right to the fullest and fairest knowledge of the candidates thereto. A candidate is entitled to a hearing before those who may elect him, and every voter has a right to know what manner of man his servant is. Let the Democrats of Ohio consider twice if their offices soon to be filled, of whom they need not be ashamed and who will command the respect of men of all parties. Such men, pampered with the truth of Democracy, have pitched their tents on Family camping ground.

This law excluding any kind of lottery matter or any matter in any way advertising any lottery, from the mails, seems to have proved a death blow to the lottery business in a kingdom known as the Louisiana Lottery, located at New Orleans. The chief officer of that company, after having faced the loss of $100,000 yearly for the privilege of running the business, now announces that it will soon be discontinued, and so another temptation to gamble will be removed from before our people.

PRETENTION AND PRACTICE

It is funny to observe the antics of the self-styled "Reform" newspapers. They start out to "reform" all the world, and then, it appears, they have their hired agents at the head of every organization of every kind held in the country, and there they hold all manner of threatenings and threats, and, pure, good and competent men, and the victory will be a splendid one.

And this is the party of great moral ideas (?) descended.

GENERAL CAPITAL NEWS.

Fraser River, Feb. 6, 1892.

The Legislature being uninterested in the subject, it is left to the people to decide to its hand.

So here it is absolutely demonstrated that the Legislature is not fit to be trusted.

Chill on Saturday; that on the next legal day he carried his war message to the House.

isted, the names are veiled, but whose names are good enough for their membership to Mr. Huff.

Mr. Huff writes good, practical letters to his own paper, the Carlisle Mercury; and the Wayne News, while other papers have done nothing.

With the Captain's detailed report of events taken from the regular corps of correspondents of the daily press, keep the news, and the people throughout the State are now in a position to learn what is going on at Frankfort.

ROARER, AWAKE! Ⓛ SNORER, ASLEEP

ROARER isn't caught napping. He is "on" to the best places to trade, and knows by instinct or intuition when bargains are being placed upon the counters. By the way, he is a frequent visitor at our store, and from the fact that he continues to come, we deduce the conclusion that everything is satisfactory. This is as we wish and as we strive to have it.

SNORER Is a sleepy, thick-headed fellow who is not alive to the exigencies of trade, and does not realize that right here in his own place is a store equal to any this side of Kalamazoo in every respect. If there is any way to awaken Snorer, depend upon us to find it. This seems like brag, but it's straight truth.

DRY GOODS We have placed on our counters the largest and handsomest line of Prints, Ginghams, Canton Cloths, Bedford Cord Ginghams, and other stylish wash fabrics, ever shown. If you want a nice Dress for early Spring, you should visit Headquarters. Next week we will receive our entire line of Woolen Dress Goods. They are handsome and as cheap as they can be bought anywhere.

CLOTHING We want to impress upon the men and boys of Ohio county that we are Leaders in the Clothing Line. If you don't believe it, come and look at our stock and get our prices. Every article bought direct from the manufacturers and guaranteed to wear as recommended. Buy direct from us; we protect you in price and quality.

BOOTS & SHOES Every day some of these heavy goods. They go at your own price. Buy now and save money. Valises, Trunks, Window Shades, Curtains, etc., at prices that defy competition. Wake up and visit us and we will convince you that

NOT SO EASY AS IT LOOKS.

It was cold—real cold—today, raining hard in the dark.

And each one seemed to fall in line so gracefully and slick.

"I've got to do as well only I have a half chance."

The type-handy took his hand; "Overjoyed the stick he took."

He was a good boy, but he got it right this sort of looks.

B. D. RINGO is in Frankfort.

New Spring Goods at Kahn's.

Dr. P. Williams, Owensboro, is in the city.

Misses & Mrs. are preparing for a big Spring trade.

Bon Gossage, Pleasant Ridge, was in town yesterday.

Bernard Bent, went to Louisville last night, on business.

If you need anything in the tinsorial line call on Henry Collins.

New stock of Clothing, Books, Shoes, Hats, etc., at Smith & Cain's.

Fresh stocks served in all styles at stores of T. J. Morton's.

Any one wishing a Blown Bell will do well to call on William Bell & Co.

Fresh figs, Peaches, Mackrel, White Fish and Herring, go to G. L. Klein & Co.

J. T. FAIR, Olinton, was the guest of his son, F. L. FAIR, Sunday and Monday.

Martin Bean went to Memphis, Tenn., Sunday night, to set type on a morning paper.

If you want a good smooth and easy shave call at Smith & Cain's, on Market street.

J. W. Ford & Co., are paying the best prices for sound, white corn, at their mills.

Mr. W. H. Burton moved his family to Elizabethtown.

I will preach at Mt. Vernon church the 14th day of February, 1892, at 10 o'clock a.m. G. J. BEAN.

For sayings you may need in the tinsorial line, call on Smith & Cain, Market street.

To the patrons of District No. 10, Ohio county, I take this method of returning my thanks for past favors. I am a simpleton, but will make you as good a teacher as I could, considering the condition of the house which I have been taught to you but have a school of bright pupils who are ready and willing to learn. The godparents have been also kind, for all of which accept my thank D. H. GODPER.

F. M. Porter has moved on his fine farm next town, recently purchased of Mr. Taylor, and will be here daily to renew his allegiance to the Herald, he expresses himself as being well and happy in his purchase, and account yesterday he was barely alive.

Col. S. R. Dent, the hustling insurance agent, who has been with us for a few days, left yesterday with his bus. Ky., where he will remain several weeks. He is a good man, and represents a good concern, and he did a fine business in the insurance line, and will stay in town and come again.

Mrs. Aggie Duncan, wife of Dan Conant, McHenry, Ky., died yesterday afternoon at the Hamilton brewing grounds-to-day at 3 o'clock p.m. She leaves her friends to mourn her untimely death. Friends and relatives condole to the deceased.

A sensational breach of promise just has been filed in the Circuit Court by Fannie Huff, in which she accuses her fiancé of breaking his word to marry her under promise of marriage, which he has repeatedly refused and now refuses to do. His conduct has been damaged in feeling, social standing, and friends.

Yours truly,
EDWARD BARNARD CO.

Everybody Knows Me.
(Lexington Transcript.)

The failure of J. H. Werts is a point of interest to all. Mr. Werts' friends declined to advertise saying that he had been here so long that everybody knew him. Mr. Werts' friends say he is dead. His store is one of the best located in Lexington, and he has been a good citizen, and his friends are grieved over his loss.

A business man of many years standing has recently advertised in the Transcript that he had sold his business. But all this did not attract trade, so he has given up.

KILLED AT THE CARD TABLE.

A Pathetic Incident of Life in a Western Mining Town.

[Detroit Free Press.]

A little boy stood beside a gambling table long ago in an Idaho mining town and addressed this trembling word to one of the players:

"The man is a rough man, with great, sinewy hands, a grizzled face and thin, mercurial lips.

But his eyes—how vicious and utterly lost the light that flashed from their depths!"

"'Foggy,' when you gain house?"

Again the timid voice came to the rough man and he laid down his cards deliberately, turned away. The boy had seen the look in the blazed fingers; those eyes only two, well, and he drew back and huddled himself together in a righteous but mute appeal for mercy.

"What's that you, you mangy whelp? Get out! I have no, now, an' don't you want a mite or I'll be dead on you. Are you gone?"

Slowly, sadly, the little fellow turned as white as a sheet and, as though he had been about to look back and forth at those vicious red eyes still fixed upon him, and the voice came to his ears:

"What you stoppin' for? Git!"

And gulping down a sob that was rising like a throat the boy passed through the door.

For another hour the players silently played their cards, and the rough man was silent, too, in his hands:

"How many cards, Pete?"

But before Pete could reply there came the quivering words:

"Pop, ain't you done done?"

The boy had turned again as fast as turned. He did not a great deal to strike the shivering child.

While we are having a good deal of sickness, our town seems to be on a boom. Mr. Jesse T. Cooksey is building a new store house in town, and we are turning to commerce, business, etc., to reduce the night and punishment.

No injury or inconvenience—Leaves no wrinkles—acts by absorption.

This canis is the most used upon the most sensitive skin, and is used by one of the most eminent Physicians of Europe in his private practice "for five years," with the most gratifying results.

John Heron, Perkins, 3 Union Park, Boston, writes: From the use of the "Leverette" Ointment my weight has increased, and my general health is very much improved. The principles of your ointment are excellent, and I am a personal physician. In proof of my gratitude, I send you my personal address if you desire it.

Price $1.00 per package, or three packages direct from our office.

THE LEBERETTE SPECIFIC CO., 325 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

For Sale.

A tract of 225 acres of land near Arden, Ky., 2½ miles orchard and over 100 good bearing apple trees; a fine barn, 20x30, with a loft; a new barn 48 feet square, about 30 acres in fine state of cultivation, the remainder being pasture and woodland; water almost in sight of school house and church. Will make general warrents, but circumstances are such that a good price must be paid. Good title. Price $1,000. For further particulars apply to Mr. W. H. Lewis, who is to be present to meet her in a better world than this. Hoping that they may, by the will of God, be enabled to find a home here.

For a moment a sound was heard, and then came the noise of a scuffle from an adjoining table.

"Ole Copper is havin' it out with Big Jim."

A moment later a pistol shot was heard—one shot was all that shot laid the little boy with the trembling voice low on the saloon floor. A higher power had made of Big Jerry a innocent in consuming a merciful deed.

"Good God, Ike!" cried Pete. "Big Jim has kill'd your boy!"

Not a nerve in his muscle, not a shadow of expression crossed the rough man's stolid face. He cast one glance of his vicious red eyes toward the little fellow heap on the floor, then drawing a reverie he turned it upon Big Jerry and shot him dead where he was standing.

"Blood for blood," he muttered, catching up the pack once more with his hands, I am, A FRIEND.

Instantly Chet Clegg was a spearhead with us. We find it hard to merit, hence guarantee this.

Our Substantial Substance.

When Mr. Harrison, the Fifty-first Congress came into power there was a surplus in the Treasury so large as to be considered a national curse.

For three years that surplus has been squandered and the Government so burdened with new and permanent obligations that the Ways and Means Committee has had to ask the Secretary of the Treasury to inform it whether or not the country can meet its expenses without the adoption of devices for getting more money of the people.

And this startling change has not been brought about by the reduction of taxes. On the contrary, the Fifty-first Congress multiplied taxes. The strain and effort of this taxation is the sole cause to wanton and肆虐的 squandering to bounties, subsidies and the diversion of taxes, by means of protective duties, from the Treasury to the coffers of fat-frying, favored classes.

What do plain men of sense think of such stewardship? And what are they ready to do about it at the polls next Fall?

Good tones are better than gold, which much less than silver, and nerves that flash fire and energy to every function are better than diamonds. This is better than a lather comb to have the right kind of a father and mother. Good breads and bad breads exist among men as really as among birds and beasts. Education may do much to check evil tendencies or to develop good ones, but it is a poor thing to inherit the right proportion of faculties to start with. The man is rich who has a good disposition, who is naturally kind, patient, cheerful, hopeful, and a friend of what is right and good. The man who has nothing to set on with in his heart, a mean's own self. A cross, selfish, frowns, a despondent and complaining fellow, a timid and care-worned man, a weak, puny invalid, or a miscreant of the inside. They do not live, but their thoughts sometimes do.

Presidential Candidates. H. A. Summers from Washington in Elizabeth, New Jersey.

There seem to be no doubt however that Mr. Curtis is a full-fledged candidate for President. His candidacy grows out of two things. One is that he has a number of friends, and a determination from those parts of a great many leaders from those sections to leave New York on this time and move to Chicago. The other is that he is not to be beaten.

Mr. U. S. Barnard has sent in a nice response to our request for the correction of some false syntax. His every effort was a success.

Please to correct:—I met him on the street. Call as soon as ever you can. I will neither come or send. I rather prefer to be visited.
